

ROADMAPS

for QUICK & EASY PET BIOS

THE ROADMAP APPROACH MAKES WRITING ACCURATE, ENGAGING BIOS EASIER WHEN TIME & RESOURCES ARE LIMITED

Try these tailored sets, or mix n' match!

★ THE PLAYFUL APPROACH

Hello, I'm _____!

My favorite things are _____ and _____, but no _____ for me, thanks.

If I was a dessert, I'd be _____.

My perfect day would include _____.

I'd love to have _____.

If you like _____ then we'd be a great team!

THE FAST AND SIMPLE APPROACH ⌚

Meet _____!

Her/his favorite thing is _____.

But he's/she's not as into _____.

He/she needs _____.

The most important thing to know about _____ is _____.

MIX N' MATCH Options

_____ is _____ years old.

01 The first thing you'll notice about him/her is _____.

_____ 's special/hidden talent is _____.

Volunteers have raved about _____ 's _____!

In terms of other pets, _____ gives roommates a _____. (Ex: thumbs up, thumbs down, A+, a chance if they are low-key & respectful, a chance if they give him/her space.

_____ has had the opportunity to meet children/dogs/cats and has been appropriate in all his/her interactions.

_____ would make an amazing office assistant! He/She would rather sit by your feet/monitor your typing/supervise your productivity than spend time alone.

Do you need a gym buddy? _____ is working on his/her fitness and would make a great workout partner while he/she gets into shape.

Belly rubs are just the beginning! _____ is a connoisseur of snuggles and demands a good amount of pampering.

_____ is a staff/volunteer favorite because of his/her _____.

Despite a less than ideal situation, _____ has flourished in our care and is now _____.

If _____ was on a dating app, his/her pick-up line would be _____. (ie: "your yard or mine?")

While his/her previous life is a mystery to us, we know that _____ has shown his/herself to be a top notch _____.